- Support for estranged students (not in contact with family)
- Support for students with experience of local authority care
- Support for refugees and students with asylum related immigration status

Welfare Advisers can offer you specialist advice to prevent problems happening, and to remedy problems if they do happen. If your case is complex, a Welfare Adviser can advocate on your behalf, e.g. if you need help to appeal a decision, or your entitlement to something is based on law or regulations.

Counselling: professional support with emotional and psychological issues including:
- Relationship problems
- Difficult decisions
- Family problems
- Exam stress
- Homesickness
- Depression
- Anxiety
- Drug and alcohol - specialist clinic available on campus

Counsellors and Therapists can help you with all kinds of difficulties, whether you are dealing with something quite serious that you have struggled with for many years, or something small which has happened recently. We have a range of different types of support including one to one counselling, group therapy, Cognitive Behavioural Therapy, and workshops on specific topics like exam anxiety, study problems and sleep.

Course Representatives

How can they help?
Each year of each course has at least one elected Course Representative - they are the key link between students and staff in their School. Course Reps:
• Represent students’ views at Staff Student Liaison Committee (SSLC) meetings.
• Work with staff to improve their course and resolve course-related issues as they arise.
• Work with the Students’ Union to campaign for change and make things better for their fellow students.

Course Reps deal with issues which affect the course as a whole and not with individual student’s issues – these should be taken up in the first instance with the Student Support Officer for your School.
